Thank you for your commitment to UNLV’s future.

Your vision and generosity provide a sustainable future for UNLV. You are helping the university on its path towards greater student achievement, research, and community engagement.

The UNLV Foundation is committed to responsibly stewarding your endowed funds by following an investment strategy that maximizes long-term returns. This allows the endowment to provide funding for current programs, while growing the fund for future needs — ensuring that the impact of your fund will last in perpetuity.
